Taking Back the Waves—4 p.m.

Cass Collier and Ian Armstrong are passionate surfers who come from different walks of life. United by friendship, they push into the big Cape Town waves and toward an end to segregated beaches. The surf belongs to all.

Zen to Zero—7 p.m.

Five young men take off for a three month surfing trip from California to Costa Rica, with three cameras in their luggage. Their film has turned into a wistful essay about the philosophy of surfing.

Going with the Flow—8: 15 p.m.

Join Mike, an average joe surfer, who works a regular job, has a family and enjoys surfing as a way to keep balance in his life as he takes off to meet the master of modern surfing culture. Surf legends and stories among the California waves.
